

1. ___ is the interaction between the forces of demand and supply (price)
2. Economic___ are simplified versions of real-life event (models)
3. Full employment is a problem of ___ economics (macro)
4. ___ is the root and natural cause of all economic problem (scarcity)
5. ___ establishes a relationship between cause and effect (economics)
6. Law of diminishing returns is also known as law of___ (variable proportion)
7. ___ is the study of people in the ordinary business of life (economics)
8. Economics has ___ and ___ school of thought (classical; neo-classical)
9. ___ curve has a negatively slope (demand)
10. ___ resources are called free gift of nature (natural)
11. ___ can also be called natural resources (land)
12. The reward for labour is ___ (wages and salary)
- 13 ___ is paid for the use of natural resources (rent)
14. The isoquant curve is alike to the ___ curve (indifference)
15. ___ ability is rewarded by profit (entrepreneur)
16. A party is said to be ___ if a policy impairs his position (worse off)
17. ___ criterion states that a change is desirable if it improves the position of one party and does not harm any other party (pareto)
18. The aim of government in an economy is ___ (welfare maximization)
19. ___ is the creation of utility (production)
20. ___ motive states that people desire to keep or hold money for day to day transaction (transactionary)
21. ___ Inflation is also known as run-away inflation (galloping inflation)
22. ___ factor leads to changes in quantity demanded of a product (price)
23. ___ factors lead to change in supply (shift)
24. $E_d > 1$ is ___ demand (perfect elastic)
25. ___ deals with the increase in per-capita income (economic growth)
26. In a free competitive markets ___ regulates the flow of goods and services from producers to consumers (price)
27. Theory of demand is also known as the theory of___ (consumption)
28. Theory of supply is also known as the theory of ___ (production)
29. Demand for ___ goods fall as income of consumers (inferior)
30. ___ science deals with "what is" (positive)
31. ___ science deals with "what ought to be" (normative)
32. $P=AR=AVC$ means ___ (loss)
33. $P=AR>ATC$ means (abnormal profit)
34. $P=AR<AVC$ means (total shutdown point)
35. $P=AR=ATC$ means (normal profit)
36. ___ started through consumer analysis (consumer behaviour)
37. According to Juan Robinson, the act of selling the same article produced under same control at different prices to different buyers is known as price___ (discrimination)
38. ___ is the enjoyment of necessary resources for a worthwhile life (welfare)
39. ___ refers to human efforts both physical and mental (labour)
40. A ___ resource can be drawn up indefinitely if used conservatively (renewable)
41. Market clearance is also referred to as ___ (equilibrium)
42. Ceteris paribus, the ___ for a product will fall at a higher price (demand)
43. Demand can be individual or ___ demand (market)
44. The demand schedule is used to plot the ___ (Dd curve)
45. Jointly demanded goods are ___ (complementarily)
46. The vertical line of a demand curve represents ___ while the horizontal line represents ___ (quantity demanded; price)

47. Marginal rate of substitution is to ___ and marginal rate of technical substitution is to (consumption; production)
48. A one-person economy is called the ___ economy (crusoe)
49. A party is said to be ___ if a policy improves its position (better-off)
50. Transitivity is ___ (consistency)
51. The Excess demand over supply is ___ (shortage)
52. The excess of supply over demand is ___ (surplus)
53. Additional satisfaction is ___ (marginal utility)
54. Absence of transport can be found in ___ (perfect competitive market)
55. Heterogeneous product is under ___ (oligopoly)
56. ___ is a price giver (monopoly)
57. ___ is a price taker (perfect market)
58. ___ shows maximum amount of goods and service that can be produced by a society (production possibility curve)
59. ___ and ___ are forces of market (demand; supply)
60. There is preferential treatment in ___ market (imperfect market)
61. ___ is an imperfect market in which there are only two producers of the same commodity (duopoly)
62. Barrier to entry for other firm is one of the characteristics of ___ (oligopoly)
63. ___ means scale of production (economies of scale)
64. ___ shows the possible combination of two commodities, that give the same level of satisfaction (indifference curve)
65. ___ does not determine shift or change in demand (price)
66. ___ does not determine shift or change in supply (price)
67. A shift or change in demand and supply is determined by other factors affecting demand and supply except ___ (price)
68. Cardinal utility measure in ___ (utils)
69. Ordinal utility measure in ___ (ranks)
70. ___ is the beauty of capitalism (competition)
71. Overall / aggregate equilibrium is ___ (macro economics)
72. ___ deals with value judgement or what economics ought to be (normative)
73. ___ show the mathematical relationship between input and output (production function)
74. Partial equilibrium is ___ (micro economics)
75. Two types of reason are ___ and ___ (deductive; inductive)
76. Economic scale can be ___ and ___ (small scale; large scale)